Who are we?

ANDREA OF GAIA

My journey through physical, mental, and emotional challenges has taught me the vital lessons of self-acceptance, self-love, and embracing opportunities for growth within life's most difficult moments, leading me to true transformation, happiness, and the courage to follow my dreams. Now, I'm here to share my story and wisdom through practices such as Energy Healing, Sound Healing, Somatic Breathwork, and more.

My purpose in life is to guide and teach others to heal, awaken their highest selves, and remember their soul's purpose.

I truly believe that if I could heal, so can you.

THE LIGHT BRINGER

Embracing the light and the healing power of the universal life force energy and conscious thoughts, I've transformed my life's challenges into blessings, and in the process I've developed a deep passion for helping others to unleash their power within to create their own heaven on earth. My mission in life is to be of service to my beautiful soul family and activate the Zero Point Energy by promoting high frequency emotions of unconditional love, forgiveness, compassion and gratitude to help elevate the collective consciousness of humanity.

TESTIMONIALS

Andi, CA

" Doing somatic breathwork and the breathing as medicine and healing, letting go of anything that is toxic, letting go of anything that's negative and just bringing in all that positivity into your soul, into your essence, it's just been a wonderful experience for me and I am truly grateful for Zero Point Activation and how I am starting to heal, I'm feeling better, I'm living with more gratitude and appreciation."

Joseph, CA

" My experience with zero point has been transformative. It's hard to describe the feeling and effects... it's just something you have to experience for yourself. Andrea and Lucifer work with a sense of grace and understanding that left me feeling calm and peaceful."

Yolanda, CA

" I can't even express the words...it was very explosive and yet very inward at the same time if that makes any sense...it's made my understanding of who I really am more clear...I am more able to embrace my uniqueness...it has allowed me to be more myself...It was amazing and powerful! Thank you! "

TESTIMONIALS

Christina, CA

" I just felt both you [Lucifer] and Andrea's energy was so beautiful and you were passionate about what you were doing and it just affected me. I've had a lot of Reiki and I feel nothing, I feel like my energy has been so stuck... all the sound baths, all the breathworks I've done, nothing will move in me...but at that event when you were doing the hands and stuff [Reiki] I was like ooooooh I actually feel something, it was powerful! "

Dani, CA, Airborne Division

" I'm no stranger to mental therapy, I have been working hard on myself for so many years to cope with my past traumas. I been seeing a therapist for over three years. Talk therapy has helped me tremendously but I feel that I needed more. A friend introduced me to Zero Point Activation. I have had 3-4 sessions and I already feel a difference. Body trauma is real. I'm finally letting go of my grief, and guilt from past experiences. Zero Point has opened my eyes and heart to the next level of therapy. I highly recommend them for any veteran that is struggling with PTSD, anxiety, social anxiety or depression. Don't let the past rule your future. Life can be beautiful again with a little guidance from Zero Point Activation. "

Monica, CA

" Over the years I have been going layer by layer by layer and this is a very very deep manifestation of trauma...when you came over and just really helped me... pull that energy out, it was amazing. And then when we ended I just felt release, relief, joy and gratitude. It was an amazing, amazing event! "
